

Wed October 27th
Father came in this morning to ask me if I ask for him to day if he needed me. I told old so young John came in to tell me to go over see and Grum told me he had told George to tell me not to come so I come home again apple the rest of the day and got all my icked about 12 bushels tree-um and some sects and some nice looking apples that now the name of. Fine day but cool wind.

in to snow about day break this morning and up till after noon. It then partly cleared up but it cold and is freezing hard to-night. The landscape a wintery aspect with all the beauty of fresh snow trees with the added colouring of the red green brown oak & beech leaves and a few yellow maples are not dropped yet; which with the after noon sun in and though it gave a picturesque effect that a description. I spent the whole day cleaning and the storm windows. I took them down cell as to do Mr. Donald was in to-night to see if the road chaps had come yet and told me that he heard that M had seen Dove & Kelly on the road and that their gas boxes would hold a yard of gravel and they supposed to draw 1 1/4 yds at a trip. Some say Trip, the new foreman, but Bill said he wasn't yet but they were

Thursday October 29th

As I hadn't heard anything from home since Monday to go over this morning to see if they were going to thresh so what arrangements we could make about voting just as I was ready to start Jack & Albert M. L. in with Dad & Frank headed for the polls. Jack offer the kids while Mary went out and voted and Mary surprised consented. so we four went with Albe marked our ballots for Hinzell. There were votes out at Wiggins so we weren't long gone been very successful with the children and sober so drove carefully. Dad told us that died on Tuesday and was to be buried this afternoon up my former plan of going down this fore noon after the storm windows and some groceries but thought I could get them this afternoon when I went to the funeral. It turned out a nice sunny day and Mary said if Mrs. Thompson were
