

October, 1928.

26 Friday. Hard frost this morning. Cold. The men plowed this morning and topped turnips this p.m. Ella & Vernon took up some of the dahlia roots today. Mrs. Wagner died this morning at Otto Miller's. Walter & Vernon were at Saw. Horst's tonight helping to move the stove into the winter kitchen.

27 Saturday. Cold & raw.

Walter went to Elmira this morning and Vernon got some sand for the chimney. Ella went over to Otto Miller's this morning and helped to do some baking. This afternoon it rained and the men topped turnips for awhile.

28 Sunday. Cold & windy.

Showers and snowflurries. We visited Clayton Scheifeli's near Conestogo today. Ella & Earl Miller went down too and Oliver Scheifeli's were there. We called at Grandpa Krauter's this morning. We had a very enjoyable day.
