

SUNDAY, JUNE 8, 1879.

I was weather found
last night in Dover.
so that I stayed all
night at Knolls.
Came home this morning as soon as possible.
Went to hear Mr. Church
this morning.

This delightful day
of rest has pleased, thank God, not altogether
without profit to my poor soul. I have had some delightful
seasons of communion with Him, when I felt to an unusual degree the glorious
presence of the Master.
I am perhaps convinced that the desire of my heart may not be any way be mingled with iniquity.

MONDAY, JUNE 9, 1879.

The boys have been drawing manure to day from below the horse stables.

I have been doing
little jobs most of the time. This afternoon I had some visitors and this kept
me from my work.
Mr Isaac Chubbins was here, just from Kansas.
"See thee O Lord, do I put my trust; let me
never be put to confusion.
Deliver me in thy right counsel, and cause me
to escape; incline thine ear unto me and save me. Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I day continually resort; thine help and thy righteousness shall save me from mine enemies, and my God shall save me from them all my rock and my fortress."
