

May, 1931.

25 Monday. Drizzly morning.
Fair day. Walter went to Jim Weaver's
this morning and stayed for dinner.
We had company for tea - Mr. & Mrs.
Colson Jefferson, Roy & Lois, Mrs. V.
Hebel and Glenn and Mr. Adolph.
Other callers - Addison Reist, Sam
Hart, Alex. and Hilson Young and Marasch Martin.

26 Tuesday. Fine day and warm.
The men are plowing down the first piece of grain they sowed as it is full of wild oats. Walter took a load of chopping to Florida Dale this afternoon.
Ella did the washing and canned rhubarb.

27 Wednesday. Clear and warm.
The men finished plowing and Walter sowed barley in the field beside the garden. Ella canned rhubarb and pineapple and did the ironing.
Mrs. Jake Spies and Irene spent the evening here and Vernon called at Stange's tonight.
