

Wednesday Feb. 22, 1922.

I went to Charles Cooper's sale in the afternoon, after which I took the mail round the Townline Kent delivered to the Bay and then round the Club part, he took Queen and Ily to the Bay and Queen and ~~and~~ the cart on the Club.

It sprinkled rain nearly all day and the roads are getting bad.

Thursday Feb. 23, 1922.

It rained and thawed last night and the roads are bad.

Kent delivered on the Bay and Townline with Queen and the cart and I delivered on the Club part with Dick.

It sprinkled rain in the forenoon but cleared up and became windy in the afternoon.

Friday Feb. 24, 1922.

Kent delivered on the Bay and Townline and with Queen and Ily, and I delivered on the Club with Dick.

The day was fine but rather cold the roads were frozen and rather rough.
