

road. He drove his car & Gibbie in over priming & feeding gas, but with no success. Halfway down the hill Jack got in our car & Gibbie took his and started the flats. Jack got one kick out of her but couldn't get any more. They towed her up the hill as far as Coombs there we drew some gas from the tank & Jack took out a couple of spark plugs and poured it right into the cylinders, and that seemed to be what she needed.
Although it took her a dozen short runs to get her going so that she would keep going and we were down as far as Art Juanburg's before we ran the wire rope.
Meanwhile there was consternation at home. Mary not knowing where we were. She and Auntie Alice had two or three telephone communications and Auntie Alice had put off dinner from 12 to 12:30 & from 12:30 till 1. When I got back to Dances gate with the car I met Mary & the three kids walking and Mary fearful lest we had gone on into town and I would be trying to telephone her. However all went fine from then on and we got to Auntie's before one.
This afternoon Mary went to the party & Auntie took the kids up to see Miss Pincuswell. I sat around all afternoon & read We stayed there for tea and the kids & Uncle Dick had an interesting time. We got home about eight o'clock however day.

Sunday March 18th

We were late getting up this morning so none of us got to church. Didn't do much all day but Chores & sit around and read. I noticed one of the tires on the car flat so I changed it. Tom & Mrs. Butler were over for a short time about noon and brought egg shutes.
They came to see the top of haffsids which are all out now and are certainly beautiful. Mabel came back to night just before dark. Raw E. Wind & spitting snow.

Monday March 19th

Tom and I got in a little more work at the ash tree this morning. but didn't finish it. This afternoon I went over to Louis and got the 300 eggs that he saved for Pickford and took them over to Chris Juanburg's for him to put in the incubator. I drove on over to the farm although the road around the hill was fierce. I had the three kids with me and we were there for a little while Dad. gave me a Cheque for $500.⁰⁰ I went on down town and got some provisions came home and then did Chores and went down to Auntie's for tea and to night went to Lodge. Frank and I drove home together and had a time getting the car started again. Dick is going to Toronto to morning to stay & Cousin Carrie & see the shooting, Canada.
