DECEMBER Christmas Day (Dominion) TUESDAY 25 (359-6) 1923

rained nearly all day we got up early. Mary and Jac. Garfield and Percy Dormer came up in the forenoon and stayed until evening They took my car home with them Mamie went to Methodist Xmas tree tonight and I stayed with the Kids. snowed a little tonight

WEDNESDAY 26 (360-5)

fine but dark and cloudy today around home in the forenoon Jac. Dormer brought my car home in afternoon I took him down as far as Will Mc. Phersons. I went from there over to Annies and stayed there for a while and came home for supper. I went over to Geralds in the evening and Nellie gave me $39.00 her share of Bank Taxes and ½ the expenses registering deeds and painting Bank building

DECEMBER THURSDAY 27 (361-4) 1923

fine day around home in the forenoon Gerald Rob. Webb John Randall and myself all went over accross the canal to see our timber lots in the afternoon turned much colder and snowed quite hard tonight I went to bed early cold with snow flurries. I went over to Geralds for a while in the forenoon I deposited in the Toronto Bank $136.70 to W. H. Hewitts account This amount I collected for him on the Gamble mortgage I wrote nearly all the afternoon and part of the evening. They drove sleighs today for the first of the season

FRIDAY 28 (362-3)