

SUNDAY, MAY 22, 1870.

Mother and I went out to Dover this morning to meeting. Our Rev. German preached.
Mary Jane went out with us too and is going to stay until after Stephen's birth day.
I felt so unwell that I did not get any good of the service in the Church. We went home as soon as possible and I spent the remainder of the day in my bed.
People talk of free
quarrels, but alas,
how slow they are
to see where these elements are found.
Are they not measured

MONDAY, MAY 23, 1870.

The past has been an uncomfortable day with one's body. I have felt quite unwell, so much so as to prevent my doing any kind of work. The boys have been doing some little jobs, such as planting potatoes &c. To night
they killed the veal.
We have had some very heavy showers of rain today and last night and everything is growing splendidly.
It is said that I
the word "husband" means liberally. The bread of the house, and with means a weaver. The husband is supposed to bind the household together and the hand does the other
