

Sept. 22.

Saturday 22.

Bright and windy. Dad helped Uncle Lewis thresh this morning. Maud came home after dinner. Dad and I went to town this afternoon. Mrs. Dr. Clarke died yesterday.

Sept. 23

Sunday 23.

Cold and rained part of the time. We were all up to Mr. Kilpatrick's for dinner. After dinner we girls went down to Seminary cemetery. Margaret and we girls went to church tonight.

Sept. 24

Monday 24.

Cold and rained off and on. Mabelle came home with Maud tonight. Mother, Mabelle, and I went and took some plums up to Aunt Belle tonight. Uncle Lewis was here this afternoon. Bert was here tonight for plums. Mother was up to Uncle Lewis' west place after tomatoes.