

January, 1929.

17 Thursday. Mild. Rained practically all day. They killed a big pig here for Quincy White. Sam Horst helped to scrape and scald her.

18 Friday. Mild, foggy & drizzly. Rained hard towards evening & tonight. Walter took a load of quist to Alma this afternoon.

19 Saturday. Somewhat colder. Fine day. Looks like spring as our meadow is flooded with water. Walter went to Elmira this afternoon with Noah Miller and Vernon put out a few loads of manure.

20 Sunday. Very cold & stormy so we spent the day very quietly at home. There were 34 at Sunday School.

21 Monday. Clear and cold. Fine winter's day. Walter butchered a big pig for Enoch Schneider's today. He & Noah Miller drove over to Dad's Marshalls tonight. Vernon put out a few loads of manure.
