

December Thursday 30 1926

A lovely day with a little lower temperature. Walked into Cleaners at night. Barker, Jack, and Whitehart were there and I had a very nice time playing cards etc. Short ride in the Dodge with Jean and was home and in bed at 12:30.

Friday 31

Finished up 1926 in front of Barker fire place with my head resting snugly in the lap of the only girl I really ever loved. Such an appropriate ending with a real girl after a wonderful year together.

The year 1926 has been a wonderful year for me because it was in this year that I found I really loved Jean and Jean only, became engaged to her, presented her with her engagement ring for her birthday and later arranged our wedding day for March 3rd 1926. Now I know what is definitely before me and her is hoping for a wonderful 1927.
