

1920. Went to Colace + Mrs. McDonald. made a box for Blanche Gillis for armchair. Day Day.
20° below zero. Slept inside.

January 16. ^{Friday}
~~Thursday~~ Went to office in morning. after-dinner made sandwiches (peanut-butter-and brown bread with walnuts) for the P. S. sleep side. Went down to the church. Then Mrs. M. A. Halliday + Mrs. S. Ewart and I went to Mrs. Jackson's tea (for Mrs. Grant).
Went back to church with Mrs. Crow and Mrs. Beattie calling at Mrs. Crow's on way up.
Impromptu programme - singing the tiny children very funny. Marked
Mrs. Crow's "Bible Cooking - School Cook Book" for her. Blanche Gillis and Jessie Leslie called to get box.
Had been logging at the Hockey match
at the rink and had $14.85. slept inside

January 17 (Saturday) Very stormy day. Was at the office all the morning. at noon ripped the collar of Dunbar's evening coat and hemmed up neck.
Took work box to Mrs. Crow and D's coat to show to be sent away to be dyed. Went to office where I worked until 6.15. Charles went to Mr. Stanley's funeral - Jessie + Rena both collapsed
