

mo 11th —

Lydia came across the feilds [sic] and stoped [sic] all night with us, a grate [sic] treet [sic]

[pg 16b]

1890 4^{mo} 13th A most beautifull [sic] bright
warm day, the first day of the week,
Levi went to meeting alone Mary down with Rachel for a visit gone
two nights, have not seen Lydia to day [sic] _ pretty lonesome for an Old woman, or rather her poor Old mother, who lived with her most 52 years.

—
_22nd Rachel Sills up for a visit over
with, Mary Levens, _ _ _

—
Went to John Williams the 21st while she was here for dinner, also Nelson & Rachel Walter & Mary, Mary Bowerman & self _
the first time I have been on the road
since I came here ten months ago. _

[pg 17a]

1890 5^{mo} 7th

Lydias [sic] Birth day [sic] fifty two years old, Spent the day with us & fixed my flannel dress. _

—
_14 How strange we should keep the wrong day for Lydias [sic] birth-day [sic]
the sixth instead of the seventh. _

—
21st Vincent Bowermans [sic] Birth-day [sic]
would have been 99, Lydia spent the day with us, helping Mary & Carrie clearn out my room, or their front room _ _ _

—