

Hubby said that Larry they had telephoned home up to say that Quint had gone through his operation all right and was doing fine, the doctors said he was one of the finest specimens they had operated on for some time, and they to a lot of them. There are two fellows from Jimcoe going next to Quint going through the same thing, the Government pays all their expenses. Yo night Sid Marsh came aft. Dad to go and see a mare of Carpenters which foaled this aft. noon, but some thing had gone wrong with her and she died while Dad was up there. Rainy & raw.

Sunday April 2nd

I got ready to go to Sunday school this morning but found I was late so didn't go but went down to church. We all went to church went the baby and he was very good. Auntie came back with us and Dick was here when we got home, he slept to late to get to church. It was the first time we had seen him since last Sunday. He and I went down town again soon after dinner. Marj., Glad. Law and I went for a walk around the hill. I came home to tea and went down again after was but didn't go to church. They didn't have any recruiting meeting to night. Marj. & I went up with Glad Law to her place for a little while went down to Auntie for a little while and come home early. Auntie expects to go to London tomorrow to attend the annual meeting of the W.A. Mr. Curran the cannery factory manager died this morning he was only sick about a week. They had high jinks down town last night old Bill Caley got on a tear and wanted to lick every body in town, and they had to put him in the lock up after he had smashed Bobbie Leany's window. Mrs. Caley told them to run him in and Jimmy helped it took four or five of them to handle him. When I went out this morning I found another buck lamb belonging to Dad's yearling ewe. Very nice day.

Monday April 3rd

Old Split ear presented us with a pair of twins this morning. She is the first ewe to have twin lambs. We spent a good part of the morning choring away. I painted some more of the colony house this afternoon. I painted some more of the colony house this afternoon. I didn't use all the paint so I put the rest on the
