

Saturday June 9th

Frank and I went down to Aunt's as soon as we could get started this morning and got the grass that old Reed cut out in front on the road and we cut a lot more and brought it home in the wagon box for the horses. It was after eleven when we got home so I started to cut the lawn and finished it after dinner. Frank helped Dad (who has been working at the mud hole in the lane all day) till I got through with the lawn and then he and I went back and stretched a barbed wire along John Weir's line from the wheat to within a panel and a half of the little block of woods. We then came up and went over to the stump for a swim. It was the first of the season for us and I found the water pretty cold, so didn't stay in long. Dad had a bad headache and felt sick just before tea to night. Frank went down town to night. It has been a very hot and sultry day.

Sunday June 10th

Frank and I started out for Sunday school but Frank saw Ben Drey and wanted to see him so by the time he left there we were too late. We picked Dick up at the bank and we all three went to church and got nicely settled in the back seat when Aunty Alice came in and made us go up to the front. After church Mrs. Johnson invited me over there to dinner with Mary and some young Amstead who is a Hamilton
