

April, 1925

7 Tuesday. Fine spring day.

Heard the frogs for the first time last night. Aubrey was plowing all day. Walter took a little Hereford bull up to Logel's near Eslenallen. Ella sowed the sweet peas and some lettuce and radishes.

Oscar Pitte's house burnt down today while they were away at young Battenburg's funeral.

8 Wednesday. Fine spring day.

Ella saw a butterfly today. We killed a pig for Mrs. Farncombe this morning. Walter was boiling syrup in King's bush this p.m.

Aubrey was plowing all day.

9 Thursday Lovely warm day.

Walter & Ella went to Elmira and had their dinner at Art. Kluck's. Aubrey took 4 hogs down. Walter took off the storm windows today. Walter got some seeds grain at Mrs. Farncombe's. Mrs. Sam Umbach died this morning.