Geriatric Aphorisms—No. 9.

If there is retinal arteriosclerosis, there is a general diffused arteriosclerosis.

A primary aortic insufficiency is produced by dilation of the ascending aorta.

In acute gastritis with active fermentation the gases produced press upward upon the diaphragm causing palpitation and gastric asthma. It is the height of folly to attempt to repress the belching up of the gas.—Nascher; Amer. Med.

A fine day

Bill had a little calf this morning. Albert was up to night for some cabbage.

Charley Marchant was out for a load of straw. Girls went to school. I washed & did nearly all the morning. Clarence got over & helped John draw straw.
