

Nov. 26.

Monday 26.

Bright, cold and windy. Warren Mc Kenney and his wife and Will Mc Kenney were here this afternoon. Grace and Jean were here tonight. Dad has been drawing up sails.

Nov. 27.

Tuesday 27.

Cold this morning, but became milder and the snow nearly all went away. Dad drew sails. Mother and I picked chickens. I went to town with Mrs. Harris to this afternoon and took out the chickens. Rolland Mills and Blake Mills were here for money for the church. Maud has gone home with Margaret tonight to go to the Big Choir in Grace Church.

Nov. 28.

Wednesday. 28

Cloudy and dull. Mother and I finished the killing of chickens for one more year. Maud and I took
