

November, 1929

1. Friday. Mild. Rained practically all day. Vernon plowed at Noah Miller's this a.m. The two Walters took three horses down to Hilliard's today and had their dinner there. Callers were Sam Horst and Elam Gungrich.
2. Saturday. Fine and cooler. Vernon plowed all day. The Walters went to Floradale this p.m.
3. Sunday. Lovely day. We all went to church and P. School this morning. Walters Ella went to Waterloo and visited at Clinton Hahn's. Walter Adler and Vernon had their supper at Stuyves's.
4. Monday. Cold. Showers and snowflurries. Walter and Ella spent the day in Elmira helping Aunt Elizabeth Huehnergard to move. Milton Cus got Walter Adler tonight. Milton has hired Walter for a year. Vernon was plowing.
