

good after all. We brought the cows up with us and milked before tea.
The flies were awful. Dick was here when we came up. We had a late tea and Dadday tended to the horses afterwards.

We have not seen sign of Roy since church except we saw him with Ling going into the drug store after films to tape ^{the} thing's kid on as it has been taken about a dozen times before by amateurs, but none turned out.
This was just after we came out of Cousin Clark's.

It has been awfully hot today but is cooler to-night.

Old Nigger dog has been over here all day. Lint went up to Norman's with Bill and Hugh in Queens in the latter's launch about two or three o'clock this a.m.

The machine when we came past was just seeing Dadday reply over Hornum's fence when we got home Dick was down town all the afternoon. I fishes been better than - it was Saturday to-day.

Monday August 7th Daddy had to start off early after breakfast to thrash at Flemming's and was gone all day. I mended my saw horse, cut some wood and started to cut burdock in the orchard.
After dinner I finished cutting burdock in the orchard and walked back to the gully with Roy. Roy went down town about three o'clock. I cleaned up a little behind the wood shed Lau Enah and I drove Joe down to Huby's and we went down to the station to see Roy off and to take his grip. This being Toronto's civic holiday he ~~stays~~ all day here. We did not get home till six as Enah had to go a few places (about three) and only stayed a "minute" at each. She also saw Cousin Loll which took a little more time. They were just coming out of Flemming's with
