

Croton May 1902

Wed May ^{14th} clear and cool. Rose and Sarah was here cleaning the house I went to Thamesville with Bilton this after noon. we had a North wind in our faces coming home and cold

Thu May ^{15th} clear and warm in the middle of the day a pretty sharp frost last night. I hoed potatoes in the fore noon after noon spaid

Fri May ^{16th} clear and warm in the ^{trees} middle of the day cool in the morning a slight frost last night. I planted corn for Sarah She and Pearl was cleaning house for me.

Sat May ^{17th} clear and warm. I went over to B. Swanys for butter in the fore noon after noon hoeing the garden

Sun. May ^{18th} cloudy and rain this evening the ground is covered with apple blossoms the ground looks as if it had been snowing

Croton May 1902

Mon May ^{19th} a heavy rain last night and thunder showers with hail through the a heavy shower about 3.30 P. M. a little before that the thermometer was up to 84 deg above zero. Sarah was here baking for me. Bilton was here this fore noon. not doing much myself

Tue May ^{20th} cloudy and cool. I finished planting potatoes Bilton was here most of the after noon.

Wed May ^{21st} clear and warm. I was hoeing in the garden the fore part of the day latter part spaid Dick's bushes

Thu May ^{22nd} fore part of the day clear and hot the thermometer was stood at 90 deg at 2 P. M. between 3 & 5 a thunder storm I was hoeing part of the day

Fri May ^{23rd} cloudy and showers. I went down to the old place and cleared and sold the last of my oats in the fore noon not doing anything in the after noon