

Tuesday Went down town for meat. Fine day.
July 20th. Cleaned up Dorothy's room and the drawers in the spare room. (Guest-room right-expressing now.) Helped Mrs. Ryan hull fireworks and clean cherries. Hung some beads to the mission box for the Indians. Mrs. Dyer called to return some books. After tea Wilfred Dawson came up to learn a little about playing tennis. I played with Lauri and then Charles gave Lauri a few swift-serve. Charles went to enquire for Mrs. Milne. Alena did not come home until 5 o'clock.

Wednesday Waxed my three flower beds at the back.
July 21st Went down to Mrs. Milne's to try on my dress. Helped Mrs. Ryan get black cherries ready to preserve. Typed list of canvassers and districts for soldiers' Memorial canvass and took them down to Mrs. Beattie and went down home. Typed Dorothy's story
'The Great Unanswerable'. Wilfred Dawson & Mrs. Caldwell were here playing tennis after tea in preparation for the tournament.
Went over to enquire for Mrs. Milne. M.A.'s left for Southampton 5 o'clock. Waxed bed at Lennis Court after tea.
