

October, 1925.

19 Monday. Snowing and storming.
Ella cleaned the ^{storm} windows and Walter put them on. Aubrey went up to his brother's place last night and is staying till after his mother's funeral.

Walter helped a stranded motorist from ^{Chaska}
^{& Hurley}

20 Tuesday. Snowed all day.

Walter went to the sale of Geo. Mogk's household effects and there were only twelve people there. Louis Miller bought the place.

21 Wednesday. Milder snowflurries

Walter helped Ella do the washing this morning and Ella did the ironing this p.m. Annie Snyder and Lizzie Koepke had their trunks removed today.

22 Thursday. Fine day. Walter shipped hogs at Elmira, had his dinner

at Richards and went down to Kitchener.

Ella cleaned the upstairs today.

Aubrey's mother was buried this afternoon.