

November 1888

Tue Nov<sup>13th</sup> clear and pleasant we were working at the corn most part of the day.

Wed Nov<sup>14th</sup> clear and quite warm we finished husking and drawing in the corn out of the big field, commenced to draw stalks.

Thu Nov<sup>15th</sup> clear part of the day and quite warm. John and Walter was drawing stalks I was sorting corn and helping the boys mow <sup>stalks</sup> away.

Fri Nov<sup>16th</sup> clear latter part of the day and cool. I was pulling carrots. Walter and John finished drawing the stalks, there was a little snow this <sup>morning</sup>.

Sat Nov<sup>17th</sup> clear most of the day and cold, the hardest freeze last night we have had this season. I was sorting corn this fore noon, after noon pulling turnips. Walter and Dickie were getting up wood.

Sun Nov<sup>18th</sup> cloudy and cool. Snow in the evening.

Mon Nov<sup>19th</sup> cloudy and cool, the snow turned into a rain last night. I was sorting over corn. Walter is laid up with a boil on his wrist.

November 1888

Tue Nov<sup>20th</sup> cloudy part of the day and cool. I was pulling turnips and carrots. Walter getting so as to use his arm again.

Wed Nov<sup>21st</sup> cloudy fore part of the day and cold clear and moderate in the after noon, a hard frost last night. we were sorting over corn and putting away the drill and plowes in the after fore noon, after noon I was husking corn, covering pits in the evening.

Thu Nov<sup>22nd</sup> clear fore noon after noon cloudy and cool. John and I was husking corn. Walter was cutting a piece out of the straw stack and taking it in the barn, a very hard frost <sup>again</sup> last night.

Fri Nov<sup>23rd</sup> clear and pleasant. we finished husking and drawing in our corn today.

Sat Nov<sup>24th</sup> clear and pleasant the most of the day cloudy this evening, we finished sorting corn this fore noon, was pulling turnips the rest of the day.