

June 8th - Friday. Quite cool to-day. Dark in the morning and raining for awhile. Charles went to Walkerham at 11 a.m. with Mr. George Dusk - but got back in the afternoon. Sun shone a very little in the afternoon. I wrote to Aunt Annie and Miss Ward. I finished reading "The Founder of New France" by Charles W. Colby. In the afternoon Mr. Mui was here, then Dr. Harold Mui & Viola arrived and then Mrs. Graham, Copey, Barbara and the new baby. After tea I took a walk around the flower beds to see what was doing. Mr. Graham and Charles played Mui and Duncan at tennis. He latter had beating 11 to 9. Then Charles went to the political meeting where Mr. Ferguson (leader of Conservative party) was to speak. Made out S. S. report for Alderlie S. S. Association. Duncan came in after the meeting to type report for London Free Press for Charles.
