

Sunday March 26, 1922.

Mabel and ^{Roy and} I went to Church in the morning.

Roy went in to the Hospital in the afternoon to see how Charlie was getting along but they wouldn't let him in as Charlie was very weak from Hemorrhage.

The greater part of the day was fine.

Monday March 27, 1922.

I delivered to the Bay and round the Townline ^{with} Dick and Queen and the mail waggon; Kent delivered with Lily and the car on the Club path. When I went down to the store with the mail bag I went over to Kinnaird and they say they have the mail route.

The day was wet and
the roads were bad.

Tuesday March 28, 1922.

I went on the early car. to Chatham and on the steam car to Chatham London and saw the P.O. Inspector re. mail route.

Kent delivered to the Bay and round the Townline and when I got home on the Electric car (2/16) from London and Chatham I delivered on the Club.
