

July, 1928.

4 Wednesday. Hot day.

Walter was scuffling and Vernon was cultivating the summer-fallow. Ella was picking strawberries in Schurndt's bush this afternoon. Vernon went over to Reits to see the eagle Harvey shot one day last week.

5 Thursday. Fine warm day.

Walter shipped hogs at Elmira, went to Ketchener and arrived home at 8 p.m.

Ella was hoeing in the garden this morning and picked berries this p.m.

Mr. & Mrs. Angus Weber, Mr. & Mrs. Norman Friedel and Chas. Miller spent the evening here.

6 Friday. Warm day.

She now scuffled the potatoes & turnips this morning and pulled mustard this afternoon. Tonight we went down to church to the first Jubilee service. Rev. Morlock preached and the Elmira choir ^{rendered} gave two anthems.
