PRINCE GEORGE.

1. Where - e'er our wand' - ring sons may roam, Bri - tan - nia guards the o - cean And, safe, a - broad they all may fare, When - e'er they take the no - tion : For this let's thank our jol - ly tars Whose cour - age nev - er fails, And best of all who sail the blue Is gal-lant George of Wales.

CHORUS :

Welcome, O son of the King !
 List to the song that we sing.
 Hail, gallant son of the ocean !
 List to the song that we sing !
 Glory and power attend thee,
 Thrice noble son of the King.
 Joyfully now we acclaim thee,
 Loud let the welkin ring !
 Proudly and gladly we greet thee,
 Welcome, O son of the King !

2

The men who sail the briny deep,
 Maintaining Britain's glory,
 Have rais'd the flag in ev'ry clime—
 Full well we know the story :
 They count no cost, but straightway go
 Wherever duty hails,
 And the noblest Prince who sails the seas
 Is gallant George of Wales.

3

The soldier bold in every land
 Is honored by his nation ;
 In war he nobly plays his part,
 Whatever be his station ;
 But on the seas we have no peers,
 And not a nation fails
 To envy us such sailor men
 As gallant George of Wales.

Sheet music copies of the above song may be obtained by remitting 40 cents to Messrs. Gourlay, Winter & Leeming, 188 Yonge Street, Toronto.
