

- Mon July 23. Fine and cool, Annie and I picking berries. Little Charlie here, we called over at Mothers in the evening and at Mrs Blacks.
- Tue July 24. Fine and very cool, Aunt Nellie came home.
- Wed July 25. Fine and moderately cool, Aunt Nellie and I went picking berries.
- Thur July 26. Fine and moderately warm, Aunt Nellie at home Aunt Mattie and I in Toronto.
- Fri July 27. Fine day warm, our men haying alone.
- Sat July 28. Very warm, Mrs Seaside and Annie here for tea.
- Sun July 29. Warm, Uncle, Aunt Nellie and I at Church. I went to Fisherville it came a tremendous thunder and rain storm, but I did not get wet. Willie and the girls up at Richmond Hill.
- Mon July 30. Fine day, and moderately warm, Aunt Mattie and I called at Mrs Poles; the former weighs 124.
- Tue July 31. Fine day, Uncle, Aunt Mattie and I at Thornhill <sup>Mrs Poles, and Mrs. Smutthway called.</sup> in the evening, Uncle hired a man that called
- Wed Aug 1. Fine day, Willie and men here finishing hay.
- Thur Aug 2. Got the binder out; then over helping Willie finish haying. Uncle and Aunt Mattie at Richmond Hill in the evening.
- Fri Aug 3. Rained a little, men cutting barley. Annie here in the evening.