

with them I did. Belyca came through the lane with E. M. W. in the parlor I showing them pictures we were talking about Max for we expected them just when we were talking Max & Grant blushed we thought it was A. S. some said come in & stay out so I do went to the door & there it was Max & Grant we had a very pleasant evening of it about 18 O'clock the Mary came home from Church & they came to dinner Grant & I knew where the house was so they took the lantern & went away tramping through the Orchard & then they found it among among the bushes. It was quite a excitement.
They stayed about an hour we were singing, throwing tidys around the room then Max asked Grant if he was ready to go Max waited for Grant to say for I did not like to say for Grant brought him. We four girls slept in bed
