Friday 22.

There was no Bible Class this evening on account of the practising for a concert to be held on the second of February for the good of the Church.

Saturday 23

Rolled at the sawing afternoon. I think it will be the last sawing for this winter as we have a very large heap of wood.

The ice up on our pond is very good but I had not time to skate upon it.