Geriatric Aphorisms—No. 8.

Uniform increase of connective tissue between the apices of the pyramids of the kidneys is physiological; unequal increase is pathological.

The senile spleen is usually so small that its increase in the various diseases associated with splenic enlargement, cannot be determined.—Nascher; Amer. Med.

Weather Sprinkled a little Temp.

Melba went down to Ed Roberts
one & got Myrtle Robinson & Bill Shortage & brought them here for tea. Cecil was here a little while this morning. Melba raked up the day's yard all that she had time
