

were saloons with bars
on one side, a few tables to eat at, and a jazz band and a dance floor.
one place was a whole
block long with a bar
all its length, with doors to enter every few feet.
We then went through the Foreign Club Building where most of the gambling is done. I guess it is the next thing to Monte Carlo
we took some snaps
and had no trouble
crossing the border, but we saw one car that they made the people get out and be examined.

July 1st. Paid our house rent for July, $45.00 and garage $4.00. Went over and saw the Claytons
as we were on the way down town, after some pictures.

July 2nd Nothing special today was down town
and over to Balboa
Park for a short time.
Had Claytons & Mr Fernside call after supper. They thought
we had a fine bunch of pictures. They went home about 10 o'clock
