

Sept 23rd 1893.

- Sund 23 Squally most of the day, sun shining at intervals. Spent the evening at Mr. English's
- Mon, 24 fine but quite cold, rain at night
- Tue 25 Cold, but clear freezing hard clouding up at night
- Wed 26 Mostly cloudy, quite warm at noon
- Thurs 27 Cold and cloudy rain hard most of the forenoon, sun shining in the afternoon, cloudy tonight
- Fri 28 Mild and spring-like mostly cloudy, quite warm tonight
- Sat 29 fine and warm, partly cloudy looking like rain at night, walked down to Modanis. This of the room to remain over Sunday, stopped at the Jigger Board (at Henderson's factory) to see things, and found the factory not in as good a shape as mine Rose Hill, Dufferin

Sept 30th 1893.

- Sun 30. Lovely day, at Mrs Lane's today, J. Bryant, Chab Lane, and myself went for a row on the St. Lawrence in the forenoon, in the afternoon we attended Church, and in the evening Chab Lane brought me home to Dufferin and attended the Church here, commenced raining 9:30 P.M. and continued all night.

May 1st 1893.

- Mon 1 raining all day long nearly as hard as it could pour
- Mon .1. raining all day long nearly as hard as it could pour
- Tue 2. Dull and cloudy this morning heavy fog settled to the ground, and partly clearing up
- Wed 3 Mild today and sun shining during the forenoon preparing for a storm to-night, raining 10:30 P.M.