

he dinner Dad. was out digging ditches around his potatoes to drain the water off and Frank had put a handle in the round point shovel. This afternoon Frank went down town to get some supplies for his bee hives. he came back about four and got dressed up and went down again till tea time and was down all evening.
 He wanted to get down before the Post Office closed so that he could get his check for the savings account and buy a $2.75⁰⁰ war bond. Dad. and I sat around reading for quite a while after dinner and then took Joe and Belle & the wagon and went and got the grass that Dad. cut in the corner field the other day. When we came in I finished cutting the lawn. So right Dad. Cook & the baby drove down town to get some supplies Sunday hot after rain

Sunday July 15th

Frank and I walked down to church this morning and Auntie & Dick came back with us to dinner. Lloyd Ryerson came in driving right after dinner and he and Frank drove out to the Englands. Dick rode with them as far as the corner but was back in about five minutes in the Millman's car with Ade. Kathleen. Paddy, Spinning and Owen Cunfield. The four of them came up from Toronto last night with out sending any word and went to the dance. Ade evidently left early and went down to Auntie's intending to get lodging there for the night but they had gone to bed so he slept
