

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1870.

Charles having finished ploughing yesterday we changed our work a little to day. He have been working most of the times.

The weather is very beautiful and favorable for our work.

"Verily His salvation is open unto them that fear Him,

That glory may dwell in our land.

Mercy and truth have met together;

Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Truth shall spring from the earth,

And righteousness shall look down from heaven.

Even justice will give that which is good,

And our land shall yield her produce.

Righteousness shall go before Him,

And shall direct His footsteps in the way." Ps LXXXV, 10, 14.

This Psalm says Dr Clarke, relates doubtless to Christ's salvation.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1870.

Spill over are furnished to continue our work ditching, Charles and I. He almost finished up in night. I am so thank. I feel that we have had this beautiful weather. It has been such an excellent opportunity to do this job.

Dr. Estlin speaking of this "good fight" says: "I doubt not is a hard fight. I do not expect or desire that. How can it be easy for a man to overcome the world and crucify his own flesh? But if that be said, it is harder far, to suffer the pains of a lost soul, to lie down in everlasting burning. Oh! surely better bear a hard than have this white-hot fire; better part with some dallying sin than part with Jesus."
