

June 11th 1892

Sat. 11. Fine and clear, quite warm appearance of rain in the morning, but ended in a very pleasant day.

Sun. 12. Beautiful day, but very hot. Thundering in the afternoon, but no rain here. Got up very early and took a long walk and took a parcel to Mr. Jas. Harding, from Mrs. Cowan attended S. P. School, and spent the evening at Mrs. Cowan's with Jas. & Mary we sang the whole evening.

Mon. 13. Clear and bright, very warm all day.

Tue. 14. Bright and clear, very hot today. High west winds appearance of rain at night, but cleared off.

June 15th 1892.

Wed. 15. Beautiful day, still hot all day not much change in temperature.

Thu. 16. Another clear bright day, very hot, a stiff breeze this afternoon. Thunder to night but no rain as yet.

Fri. 17. Cool, a very black cloud ~~at~~ passed over to the east, it was argrey looking, but it only resulted in a little wind becoming fine the rest of the day.

Sat. 18. Lovely day fine and warm with appearance of rain to night. Shipped sixty Cheese today. Mr. Harding brings up some groceries for me, from Murphys Kingston, and invited me down for the evening, but I declined. Mrs. Cowan gave me a lovely Rhubarb Pie today.