

February, 1931

1 Sunday. Cold. Snowflurries.

Walter and Vernon went to church & Sunday school where Rev. J. R. Knechtel of St. Jacobs preached. Vernon went to League.

2 Monday. Wonderful day.

Cold with brilliant sunshine. Candlemas Day. Ella did the washing and Vernon was hauling wood home from the bush. Walter's callers - Sam Horst, Noah Frey and Louis Miller.

Vernon spent the evening at Wesley's.

3 Tuesday. Lovely morning. Cloudy afternoon. Walter killed a cow at Louis Miller's and was there for dinner.

Vernon drew some more wood home from the bush. Noah J. Martin was buried at Elmira this afternoon.

4 Wednesday. Lovely, clear, cold day.

Walter spent the afternoon at Otto Miller's. Vernon and Harvey Reist went to the swamp and brought home several logs and Harvey was here for supper.
