

In the afternoon we went to Keupe's for tea. Mrs Dunscombe, Mrs Burrows, Mr, Mrs Armer & ourselves being there. The evening was spent in singing playing etc.

July 12th - Spent a very quiet day. Called on Mrs Wed. Burrows in the afternoon while Mr Armer went for a bath with Walter Keupe.

July 13th - Went over to Armer's in the afternoon & Thurs. then went to the South shore with Miss Dunscombe, Mrs Armer, Corine & Russell & Jim for a bath. The first feeling upon stepping into the sea was that the waves would carry me right shore again but I soon gained confidence and felt so wonderfully elated & light when I leant & rose above the large waves when they rolled in. We stayed in about an hour. Had tea at Armer's and returned by Salt-Kettle ferry.

July 14th - Frid was a repetition of Thursday but that Frid Mr Mickle went in too and helped in bridging
