

the kids she would go down with me and not go down to-morrow as we had intended. I went to Mrs. Hampton but she was going to Surore noon but just at noon Ina came in on her from the poll and said she would come to work ay if it was a fine day so she stayed for the with the children and Mary. I went to the We got some groceries and sold our 4 1/2 doz wate Customers at 50^{cts} a dozen and I got back at Hall's and left it down at Aunt's home about five and I drove Ina home.
I walked into town to hear election returns in still midnight but the returns were of course complete when I left, but the Conservatives were lead. Ontario & the Maritimes were almost safe e wormed out 4 seats in Quebec but there was the word from the West, so it is hard to say how it stand ultimately. There were a good many polls from in Meighan's own riding of Postage la Prairie was behind about 300, and it looked when as if King was beaten in North York. We were getting Radio set in the Town Hall all at intervals situated noises in Toronto around the Star office, and it was quite see Toronto was wild. The I. O. O. F. band was out, accompanied by a deafening din of cheering & yelling & singing etc. The broad caster describ'd scene to us and said King St. West was p'ron with the biggest election crowd in history. Cloudy & to-night but it has been sunny with a short

Friday October 30th

I spent the day cleaning out the chicken ho but didn't work very swiftly as I felt sick Dad. came over late this afternoon to say the was over home ready to travel in the morning up to Shands this afternoon and called up some in Surore to find out the latest election retur of them know much more than what was in the was incomplete giving the Conservatives 112. Lib others 9 with a good many places to be as for Meighan was elected in his own riding but of his ministers were defeated. Mary went over Halloween concert at the school house to us a wish and tell fortunes. She made up fortunes before hand. Cloudy and snow