

November, 1930.

14 Friday. Cloudy & mild.
Ella & Edith went up-town this afternoon. Walter came to kitchen tonight and Ella came home with him. Vernon plowed.

15 Saturday. Mild & dreary.
Vernon finished plowing the turnip field and this afternoon they put manure on the garden and plowed it. Isaac Lachman was buried at Bridgport this afternoon. He died as a result of an accident on Monday night when the car in which he was a passenger struck a hydro pole near St. Jacobs.

16 Sunday. Mild. Showers.
We went to church & S.S. this morning and had our dinner at Wesley Miller's. Vernon went to the K & W. Airport with some of his pals this afternoon. Roy Bolender was here for supper.
