

October, 1926

8 Friday. Frost last night.
Cold and clear day. Aubrey helped cutting corn at Eph. Snyder's till dinner and a few hours at Alf. Phautz's this p.m. Vernon and Walter took 2 loads of flax to Floradale this afternoon.

9 Saturday. Clear and warmer.
The men took the buckwheat over to Addison Reiste's barn today, 8 loads and Addison & Harvey helped them load 2 loads of flax after dark tonight and they put them in the barn.

10 Sunday. Dull & dreary.
We went to Woolwich church & School this morning and then up to Grandpa Krauter's for the day.
These people were also there - Mr. &
Mrs. Lincoln Weaver and family,
Clarence Stone, Norman Atkinson,
Mrs. Schauer, Wm. Vogel and Aunt Elizabeth Kuehnergard.
