

Did not go out
to church this morning the weather being stormy and disagreeable. Took Bertha & Marian with me
to the meeting in Ellis school house this afternoon however.

Thomas Boersfield
preached a very good
sermon about the sword of the spirit.

The weather has become cold and
like winter, with snow on the ground.

Have felt like
the weather ^{which} has appeared gloomy and dark. So my soul
has felt down today.
But ^{John} faith says
the sun still shines ^{behind} the clouds.

Have had the plough
going on the Big Flat again today. Lewis
has nearly finished
the fall ploughing at last.

I have been picking over apples to put away for winter
and for other purposes.
It takes a good deal
of the time however,
to look after stock, &c.

continued cold with strong South West
winds, flurries of
snow causing occasional.

My Christian experience has become
brighter than yesterday.
The dark clouds are moving slowly away.
