

December, 1930

9 Tuesday. Fine day.

Grandpa Schneider was buried this afternoon. Ella helped all day at the house (Solomon Benders) and Walter was one of the pall-bearers.

Vernon went to Sulphur Winter Fair with Willard Schwandt. ^{Eph. Snyder moved to near Waterloo today}

10 Wednesday. Fair. Ella did the washing. Vernon & Harvey worked in the swamp all day. Walter took a load of turnips to Elmira this afternoon. They are 15¢ a bushel.

11 Thursday. Mild and showery. Molly, one of our horses is sick today and Dr. Adams of Elmira was here. Walter called at Bill King's this p.m. Daniel G. Martin died last night of pneumonia.

12 Friday. Cloudy, cold & windy. Vernon and Harvey worked in the swamp all day. Walter went to a sale near Alma with Elmo King. Ella visited Mrs. King and had tea there.