Croton May 1887

Apr 29th Cloudy high wind from the North and cold, we were cleaning and putting up grain to get chopt and spreading manure in the fore noon, after noon was sowing and harrowing peas, finished for this season Sat Apr 30th clear and cool, finished harrowing peas and furrowing out the oat ground. Walter ^{commence} plowing for corn

Sun May 1 cloudy morning and evening clear and warm in the middle of the day pretty heavy thunder this evening

Mon May 2nd clear part of the day and warm thunder and a little rain this evening. Walter was plowing this fore noon I was planting a few potatoes, in the after noon Victoria and I went to look some grain and get chopt and attended the Quarterly board.
