

Sunday May 21, 1922.

Mabel and Roy and I went to Church; Dr. Batisky preached. The Sacrament of the Lord's supper was observed.

The day was very fine.

Monday May 22, 1922

Kent and I went down to nunnies to get the fence stretchers and saw the horses on the marsh pasture. In the afternoon I did office work. Mary Wemp came out here in the afternoon.

The day was fine.

Tuesday May 23, 1922.

I did nothing but chores today. Mr. English planted corn.

John Miller was here in the afternoon.

The day was fine.

Wednesday May 24, 1922.

I helped Kent in putting down anchor posts in the line fence at the Baldon but Kent went to W-burg in the afternoon.

Charlie and Roy and Challeveau were fishing in the afternoon.

It looked like rain nearly all day.
