

November, 1925.

24 Tuesday. Fair and cloudy.

Ella did her washing. Walter took a load of chopping to Floradale and had his dinner at J. J. Otto's. Aubrey helped to thresh at Stanges till about 1.30 p.m. and helped at Louis Miller's the rest of the day. The neighbours and friends of Mr. & Mrs. Norman King held a farewell party at their home and presented them with an electric iron and a pair of gloves respectively. Walter, Ella & Vernon were there.

25 Wednesday. Cold. Snowflurries

Aubrey helped to thresh at Louis Miller's till 9.30 a.m. and plowed this afternoon. Walter helped hauling manure at Enoch Snider's all day.

26 Thursday. Fair. Raw east wind.

Walter shipped hogs at Elmira.

Aubrey helped to draw manure at Snider's till noon. He tried to plow this p.m. but the ground was frozen too hard.
