

July, 1929.

24 Wednesday. Hot and sultry. The men finished haying today and brought in 5 loads, making a total of 50 loads and several jags of raking. Sam Horst helped with the hay and was here for dinner. Irvie Schneider cultivated the summer fallow with their tractor and was here for tea. Ella was picking berries in Reisto bush this p.m.

Harvey Reist visited Vernon tonight.

25 Thursday. Thunderstorms and some rain last night. Warm day. The men were scuffling and hoeing mangels and turnips. Ella picked berries in Reisto's bush.

26 Friday. Fair and hot. Noah, Esther and Ruth Miller and Jack Muller helped to hoe turnips today. The girls went home after dinner and the men finished this p.m. Mildred Weaver Alice Bolender & Orpha Miller were also here for dinner. We went over to Noah Miller tonight and ate nearly 2 gallons of ice cream.
