

Dad. went down as soon as he could get ready and was down nearly all day helping Hubby & Quint make arrangements. He was pretty tired to night as he said he was on his feet nearly all day and he, Quint & Hubby walked home from the cemetery, they went up in the one o'clock car. He said Aunt Maude hadn't suffered a particle at the last but just slept away. Frank went down right after breakfast and got Pickford's engine & saw. Pickford & Arthur came back with him and he sawed the pile up easily before dinner. It looked a little rainy so Pickford wouldn't stay for dinner. This afternoon Frank hauled the last load of wheat down and then went down in the buggy and got a bag of flour. Cloudy to day and raining hard to night.

Friday March 25th Good Friday.

Dad. went down again this morning and Mary went down to church and stayed down this afternoon to sit with Aunt Ida. while Aunty & Aunty Alice went out. Dad brought Mary's old wheel over when he came at noon and gave it to Sid. for a prize for going to school till Easter. I spent the morning doing chores and this afternoon cleaned up the grass a little out at the side of the house. Frank spent most of the afternoon making Sid a black board which he had promised as part of the bribe to get Sid to go to school. Sid has had a great time with his wheel. When Mary came home to night she had to go through Sid Goodwin's place and back of Jack's long house as Mr. Zealand was standing out in his yard popping across the road <sup>with a 22 rifle</sup> as she thought at Jack's chickens and she was afraid to take chance at going in front of him.

Saturday March 24th 26th

We didn't do any thing but chores this morning and had lunch early and went down at one o'clock to Aunt Maude's funeral. Dad. went down earlier. We had a short service at the house where just the family were then we went to the church but Aunty and the rest didn't go. Mary went to the church but didn't sit with us. The church was packed and a good many were standing up. There were cars enough to take us all up to the cemetery. Landon Jey took Hubby, Quint, Dad. and me and Frank & Mr. Kennedy and Buck Ward went with Wil Thompson or Hank Sinclair. Erney they was over from Buffalo. It was a beautiful day we didn't need our over coats to drive up there and was fairly hot in the cemetery. Dad & I went down to Hubby's with him & Quint for awhile and then went down to Aunty's. Mary was there and Dad. said we might as well stay <sup>too, but he went home</sup> down to do chores. Mary & I went for a walk down to the pier and up to see Mrs. Harry Mason before tea. Hubby & Quint were at Aunty's for tea. Wil & Luke were at Aunt Lucy's but came down right after. I went up and we had a Lewis meeting in the Sunday school to night after which I got my hair cut at Harry Dyer's.
