

says he has sold over seven hundred dollars worth of stuff and so stranger wouldn't know there was any thing gone. They say he has all the buildings on the place including the house filled with old odds and ends which he has picked up at auction sales. Aunt Alice stays till about half past four and then Enah and the baby who were going to have tea at the James' and then go to church went down with her. Dick went down earlier. Art Quamby came over just before they left to get Dad to go down to Mr. Fleming's to see old Benice the big Sen's at home. ~~As~~ they were afraid his leg was broken. Dad got back about half past six and said his leg had been broken right off below the stifle and they had to send for Dave Widdle to shoot him. He said Mr. Fleming felt very badly but was going to skin him. I got the cows up and helped Dad milk and about eight o'clock went down town. I stopped to meet Mary's & Glad saw on way home from Lela M. Biddle's and was with them for awhile and then went in to see Harry Moore for a little while. Mrs. Moon was in bed with grip. I then went down to Aunt's and got some tea, they persisted in feeding me and got home soon after eleven. Cloudy morning but windy

Monday June 12th

This morning Dad & the baby and I drove Joe & Queen up to Barwell's and took his two pigs up. Barwell showed Dad all his crops which Dad says look fine, this year has just suited his sand farm. We didn't get home till after dinner noon and went around by train. Dick got us the paper and gave Dad & me our invitations to Mrs. Smith's reunion. Miss M. Queen had brought them with the bank. We stopped into at the Quamby's and borrowed their step ladder and paste board as they are going to paper the ceiling of the kitchen & bedroom to morrow. This afternoon I drove Enah down town as she had to get her teeth fixed and I left Joe & Queen here and had her shoes, he soaked us $5.00 for putting on new shoes. I went up and got my hair cut while I was waiting and forbad around up town most of the afternoon. I waited till half past four at Aunt Alice's for Enah and then went home alone. She got home before six. Dad and Aunt spent the afternoon clearing everything out of the kitchen. It rained a little to night but was a nice day. Gertha Barwell invited me up there to tea to morrow night to give her a riding lesson.
